

The Villager

Autumn is a beautiful, vibrant and colorful time of the year. Yes, it's sad that Summer is over but there is so much beauty in sight and it all feels very comforting with the crisp air.

From pumpkin drinks, the intoxicating smells of spices and cinnamon, warm sweaters, camping/hiking, cozy fires in the fireplace, Halloween, hayrides, and fall baking are just a few of our favorite things. Thanksgiving and Christmas are right around the corner. Its such a busy time of the year but also a wonderful time of the year.
